FAILS TO HOLD THE BIG GAIN MADE FRIDAY.

Liverpool Prices Did Not Respond t the Bulge in Chicago-Corn, Oats and Provisions Were Little Changed.

Chicago, Aug. 29.-Wheat was staggered by the small advance at Liverpool following vesterday's bulge here, and in spite of the generally builish nature of the news of the day, December closed at a loss of a the main heavy all day, but showed very little price changes at the close. Wheat started easier than it closed yesterday. December opened at from 80%c to 60%c, Friday's last trading having been at 60% 600%c. The decline was partly due to the meager response of the foreign mar-kets to the substantial advance made here on the day before. Liverpool only met the 1½c per bushel bulge here by a raise of ½d per cental, except for wheat on the spot, which was ½d per cental higher. The weather in the Northwest was favorable for the completion of the spring wheat harvest, and a prominent elevator manager was reported as saying that, owing to the threshing returns in South Dakota showing better yields than expected, his previous estimate of 30,00,000 bushels for that state would have to be raised. The local crowd was also evidently apprehensive of the effect of an unfavorable bank statement from New York, and prices were pounded down to 60½c. The bank statement, when received, was fully as bad as anticipated, but its effect had already been discounted and no further decline followed.

Chicago receipts were 220 cars, only four of which were contract, and those were 114c per bushel bulge here by a raise of Chicago receipts were 220 cars, only four of which were contract, and those were all spring wheat, none of the red winter grading high enough for delivery on contracts. Minneapolis and Duluth received 607 cars, against 732 cars a year ago. Argentine shipments for the week were 24, 2600, bushels. Near the close it was reported that the total wheat taken here for export was 180,000 bushels. About the same time Duluth reported 200,000 bushels sold there for export, and St. Louis wired that 64,000 bushels of No. 2 hard winter wheat had been disposed of at that point to exporters. The clearances from the Atlantia flour were equal to 700,000 bushels. While porters. The clearances from the Atlantic ports for twenty-four hours in wheat and flour were equal to 700,000 bushels. While the traders were discussing the export business, a few of the heavy operators who had bought puts made a raid on the market and succeeded in getting the price down to a point at which the wheat was delivered to them. December, which, on the heavy export trade had recovered from 60% to 60% 60% c, broke on the attack to 60c and closed at 60% c.

Corn was quiet and easy, largely influenced by the weaker tone in wheat and by the favorable weather for maturity of the crop. The business done was not heavy, and the change in prices was confined in the end to ½c reduction. September opened ½c lower, at 20% c, touched 20%, and closed at 20% c.

Business in oats, generally speaking, was rather quiet. The feeling had a suspicion of firmness early, but the range of prices was very narrow and at the close the tone was easier. September opened unchanged at 16% 616% c sold at 16% 616% c and closed with sellers at 16% c. The bulk of the business was in the way of exchanging.

Chy a moderate business in provisions was reported, chiefly in the way of transferring contracts. Offerings were somewhat limited and the demand moderate. The feeling throughout the session was heavy, in unison with the corn market, Closing prices, however, showed but little change. September pork closed unchanged at $3.5. September rips 5c lower at $2.20.

Estimated receipts to-day: Wheat, 200 cars; corn, 780 cars; oats, 410 cars; hogs, $5,000.

The soliciting committees that were appointed a week ago made a report Saturappointed a week ago made a report Saturday and said that they met with a liberal response from everyone and found much enthusiasm. There is a determination to make the stock yards division this year better than last year's, when it led the procession. President Stoller, of the Live Stock exchange, has appointed the following executive committee to work up the parade: S. D. Irwin, W. B. McAllister, W. H. Sawtell, H. B. Tower, W. M. Swartz, H. E. Wallingford, Eugene Rust, G. M. Walden, Jay H. Neff and John C. McCoy, and J. R. Stoller, chairman, by virtue or his office as president of the exchange. The executive committee has been authorized to appoint auxiliary committees, representing the different interests—the cattle, the hogs, the sheep, the office and Traders' exchange. These will be named this week, and the arrangements pushed to completion and success.

Colonel Zack Mulhall, of Mulhall, O. T., was at the yards Saturday. He says the range is good and cattle are doing well in his section. A good corn crop was raised, it being sufficiently far advanced when the hot winds came to be out of danger.

Charles P. Crider is back from Midland, Tex. He says the range throughout that section is good and cattle are doing well, in good fiesh and healthy. Cattlemen a e feeling good over the condition of their country and cattle, but somewhat disappointed in the condition of the market. The cotton crop is good and prom ses larger than last year, when the territory raised 2,000,000 bales. No preparation is being made to feed the seed crop, however, as cotton seed is being held above buyers' views and is relatively higher than corn. day and said that they met with a liberal
